CITY DIRECTORY.

P. H. C. Rose, parent.

HILTELVS & HILTELVS, -ATTORNEYS AT LAW, ---

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Green Bay, Prince Edward County, Va.

be Counts:-State and Federal. (H BLISS,

GENERAL AUCTIONEER.

WHITE & CO., DRUGS.

Medicines and Date at a Sundries.

- DEVEIST

J. S. M ILWAINE,

W. C. FRANKLIN ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

H. C. CRUTE, Druggist.

Exact

Examinations. .

We put intelligence eyes. We are careful what your eyes require. We in them perfectly so that they will be com-

Lenses Ground Properly. Rims That Suit Your Face, Glasses That Fit Your Needs.

W. T. LANTON, Jeweler ad ptician.

NOTICE!

R. FRANCIONE'S >PLACE.

sen of the PINEST PLACES In th

905, 907 E. Broad St., Half block from the City Hall, Richmond, Va.

Farmville Herald

AND THE

Thrice-a-week New York World,

I JAVE YOUR PRINTING DON'S JOB PRINTING AT THE HERALD JOB OF AT REASONABLE PRICES FICE, FARMVILLE.

An Education Without Strain

a serious as it costs upon the family purse. There Serious consideration is given to the availability of Former Gov. David R.

F. L. Morris and family to prepare for the education of the children, and at the same time protect the family in the event of his death.

Cation of the children, and at the same time protect the family in the event of his death.

Our books, "Five Per Cent. advocates say the party would receive through having Mr. Francis for its Twenty-YearGold Bonds,"and standard bearer. He has many friends among the solid men of the democratic alls E. L. Enambert and request, contain information latty, and they are willing to work for that may be helpful and will try.

Mr. Francis is described as the most certainly be interesting to any popular man in Missouri. He was gov-

Company ranks
First-in Assets,
First-in Amount Paid Policy-helders,
First-in Age. R. H. WATKINS. THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK,

> FRANK ADAMS, MGR. W. P. VENABLE, District Agt.

> > MATTINGS!

MATTINGS!!

MATTINGS!!!

RUGS!

RUGS!!

RUGS!!!

Call and see the NEW and Beautiful Patterns.

We delight to show you.

Richardson & Cralle.

PURE AND MILLOW

Rich and Delightful

SHORE

Jos. Manaoni.

CHAS. M. WALSH,

-STEAM-

MANUFACTURER OF

Monuments, Headstones, Tablets, &c.

FOR CEMETERY AND OTHER PURPOSES.

CAPT. S. W. PAULETT, Farmville, baseen my Agent for a number of years, and cill farmish estimates and particulars to all

AT HERALD OFFICE

-ALSO--ALSO-Iron and Wire Fencings

BICHARD A. MCCURDY, President.

FRANCIS FOR PRESIDENT.

Friends of Former Missouri Governor Think He Would Make a Strong Candidate.

(A Possibility for the Democratic Nomination for President.)

ernor four years. He was secretary of the interior in the cabinet of President Cleveland, succeeding Hoke Smith, and is now president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company. He is three or four times a millionaire.

lipper is unabated, but the Colonial has rivals for street use in the sandal and an entirely new patent leather andidate for the democracy," a proment democrat said to a New York Herseld correspondent. "He would have be hearty support of conservative he hearty support of conservative hemocrats who for eight years have he hearty support of conservative heart hearty support of conservative heart hearty support of conservative heart hearty support of the wamp with a heavy gilt buckle.

Tan will be the favorite color candidate for the democracy," a prominent democrat said to a New York Herald correspondent. "He would have the hearty support of conservative democrats who for eight years have come to regard the party as the enemy of property. Of course, he would have to fight for the nomination. Any conservative democrat who gets the nomination next year must fight for it. "I know no man whose personality would be a greater inspiration to the factor which must be reckoned with.

OLD TREASURE WAGON.

More Than Four Billions of Dollars Have Been Carried in This New York Cart.

Down in the sub-basement of the old custom house in New York, along with the ash cans and rubbish barrels, there stands a sturdy little wagon which has earried in its day more than $4,000,000,000,000 of Uncle Sam's money.

When the little wagon was consigned to the scrap heap some time ago Cusodian Lawlor decided to preserve it

"I've been here now for nearly 20

CART WITH A HISTORY the Course of 20 Years It Has Carried More Than $4,000,000,000.)

within my memory when the little wagon failed to make its daily trip up Wall street to the sub-treasury, and er a penny spilled. There's them that have been here 30 years and the tale is the same. I call that faithful nounced ideal. tale is the same. I call that faithful-ness and Uncle Sam'll have a hard time inding any other word for it, I guess. Anyway, I'm going to keep the little wagon as long as he'll let me."

The wagon, as its picture shows, still eems fit for duty. Its joints are rather often that it was thought best to recustom payments from the custom of business each day for more than 30

The passport regulations of Russia re absurd, as was shown by a journal-Prince Metchersky, who was sent by the czar to make investigations. obtained a permit to take live stock over the border. At the Russian though routier the official could read no Russian and little local manian and little Russian, but he was impressed by the official paper, and let the prince pass. When Prince Metchersky returned to Moscow, he presented the document to the governor. "This is my passport," he said. "I travaled official paper and the shoulders there were the shoulders the should be s is my passport," he said. "I traveled for five months in Rossia on the authority of this document, but the identification is neither flattering nor

Annual Meeting German Baptist Breth-

Bellefontaine, O. The Norfolk and Vestern Railway will sell and White & Co. and Winston Drug Co. Bellefontaine, O. The Norfolk and Western Railway will sell excursion tickets May 29 to June 2, tickets limited to June 6. By depositing ticket with Agent Bellefontaine, O. extension can be had to June 30, 1963. No fee required. On May 29th through cars will be run from stations on Shenandoah Vailey Division and from Roanoke. Write for rates.

W. B. BEVILL, M. F. BRAGG, G. P. A., T. P. A., Show a change of a millionth of a de-

G. P. A., Roanoke, Va.

Modes in Shoes and Hosiery

There is no real change in the high | Brilliant as are the season's shoes

EVER were feminine feet | form of the sandal tan slipper that is EVER were feminine feet eneased in covering more attractive than that to be found in the shops just now. The general tendency toward elaboration and picturesque extravagance is reflected in footgear as in all other details of woman's dress.

Figure 1. For more the sandal tan slipper that is attracting notice has three straps which fasten with brass harpess buckles.

White ties, and ties of white suede for dressy outing. The tennis shoes are about what they were last year, and also the riding boots.

Brilliant as are the season's shoes walking shoe. The styles that have found favor still hold their own. Neither do ties for street wear vary in any marked degree from those that have been popular.

The styles that have and slippers, the stockings easily keep pace with them. The black silk lead with their usual quiet popularity—only some are not so very quiet this have been popular. have been popular.

The rage for walking slippers which started last spring with the Colonial slipper is unabated, but the Colonial lights and surprises.

He is not a mere politician.

He is a great big, broad man. With bim as a candidate the democrats could get a bigger campaign fund that with any other standard bearer."

Mr. Francis is devoting all his time to the St. Louis world's fair, It is his ambition to make it a success. The in-around the upper arm, 10 inches; around forearm, 8% inches; around elbow, 11% inches, around wrist, 6 inches. One exercise for developing the arms and adding to the shapeliness of the shoulder requires a wand or cane, which should be grasped by the hands extended above the head

Swing the arms and shoulders in unison, first forward, then backward. Extend the arms at fullest length until they are nearly as possible at right angles with the body. Swing in this way at the rate of about 15 movements to the minute. The shoulders must be will have little value.-Chicago Daily

Asked and Answered.

ung with the arms, or the exercise ambition to make it a success. The influence which his position is bound to have on his candidacy, if his friends can induce him to attempt the race, is a slope. Not made to slope by the use of artificial pads introduced into one's must take the rowing position. This gown, but slope naturally so that per fection may be displayed with the low cut evening gown. For the woman to whom nature has given a pair of square shoulders there is much hard legs or any other firm support for the work and much self-denial if she arms. The game is to pull a long, long ap was fitted to the shoulder and these will in time give curve to pracwhen my lady appeared very long of tically any pair of square shoulders. slope, which was then considered a line of much beauty.

The beauty expert has solved the problem of slope that are as follows: Length of arm from shoulder to finger tips, 28 7-10 inches: neck. The shoulder seams were in problem of sloping shoulders without the aid of the modiste and these are the aid of the modiste and these are some of the suggestions she offers for accomplishing this much to be de-Take up your stand in front of the mirror and throw out your chest. Take a deep breath, and as you do so them down, so to speak, until, instead

Stop That Cough Eight Days On His Back

violet, the soul of a hily."

Thermometers used by physicians show a change of a millionth of a description. The art of glyptics, engraved on show a change of a millionth of a description. The art of glyptics, engraved on show a change of a millionth of a description. The art of glyptics, engraved on precious stone, is being revived in wild flowers are found near Nome, Alastra the state of th

Now take the ends in hand and see-

OW to acquire the ideal shoulder is a question that is to-day of quite as much carrying dumb-bells in the hands importance as how to se ure an Easter hat. The perfect shoulder is even of enduring importance than the are heavy are merely carried about, Easter hat, for the lack of the latter may be forgotten, but a lack of the a pull upon the arms and the shoulormer is ever present. To be perfect the shoulder must

The sloping shoulder takes us back to the modes of 1830, when the sleeve cap was fitted to the shoulder takes us back.

A continuation try to lower your shoulders. Pull

An exercise to assist the square-shouldered girl is one that can be per-"Why," asked the youth from Lud-low, "is a wife called the better half?" MARBLE and GRANITE WORKS, true." The governor took the paper, and found the prince there described as a "black sow, full grown, with one ear partly torn away." "Because." replied the Cummins-ville Sage, "she usually gets the best of the other half."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

and cured with two applications of Dixie Nerve and Bone Liniment. It will cure you. Owens & Minor Drug Co., Richmond, Virginia, Gentlemen:—I have been using your Nerve and Bone Liniment on my back and find it acts like a charm. For eight days I had been on my back and could not move and after two applications I am now out and to business. Very truly yours, E. C. OGBURN, North View, Va. Sold by White & Co. and Winston Drug Co.

"We'll go to the concert this afternoon," announced Mr. Jobson to Mrs. Jobson at the breakfast table awhile ago, and Mrs. Jobson looked pleased.

"Ill have to rely upon you to buy the fickets," went on Mr. Jobson. "I don't know whether it is sale for me to do that or not, but I'll take another chance, for the reason that I won't have time to-day to stop at the theater to buy'em myself."

"Oh," said Mrs. Jobson, brightly, "I'll go right down town this morning and get them—I have a little shopping to do, anyhow—and—"

-- have a little shopping to do, anyhowand--"
"Now, wait a minute," interrupted Mr.
Jobson. "Every time that I take you anywhere, or rather, when I make an arrangement to meet you to take you anywhere to which tickets are required to gain admission, there's invariably a horrible hash and a mix-up in making connections, and the busigess always winds up in a row-"But" ynt in Mrs. Johson. "I'll surely ar-

"But," put in Mrs. Jobson, "I'll surely arrange this time to-"
"No, you won't," broke in Mr. Jobson.
"I'm going to do the arranging myself this time, and then I'll know that there'll be at least a fair chance that we'll hear some of this music and set home without an allleast a fair chance that we'll hear some of this music and get home without an all-hands round melec. This concert which we are to attend to day is advertised to begin at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon, and in all human probability it will begin approximately at that time. Now, I want you to stop at the theater and buy the tickets. Tell the man at the bor office that you want him to keep one of the tickets for me—have him slip is into an envelope with my name on it. Then, when the hour for the concert arrives, all you've got to do is to walk in and take your seat, and when I get around I'll call at the box office and get my ticket and join you. Now, do you think you can remember to attend to this just the way I've indicated?"

Mrs. Jobson thought she could, said so cated?"

Mrs. Jobson thought she could, said so amiably, and Mr. Jobson, after repeating the details of the arrangement two or three times in a tone indicating his belief that Mrs. Jobson, being a very young child, or an abnormally stupid person, had to have things impressed upon her by such methods, went on down town to his office.

Several friends of Mrs. Jobson's "dropped in" that forenoon while she was endeavor-saw them across the back of the neck son.

Mr. Jobson began to turn purple, but that didn't appear to annoy the box office man in the last. He went right on shaking bis This is fine exercise, but as soon as the girl athlete can manage it she must Rowing is one way to make the shoulboxes" that a lady would like to see him for a moment. The usher conveyed the message to Mr. Jobson, who replied that he had be come to listen to a concert, had purchased a box for the purpose and did not intend to be annoyed under any circumstances during the remainder of his occupancy of that box. The usher retired in confusion, told Mrs. Jobson of what Mr. Jobson had said and escorted her to her seat.

She dilet has remed of the music of that said and escorted her to her seat.

She didn't hear much of the music of that concert, for her attention was taken up throughout in observing Mr. Jobson sitting in gloomy, cross-legged magnificence, all by himself, in the stage box, with a heavy scowl on his face, as if the music caused him the most intense agony of mind and body. Mr. Jobson never once looked around the theater in search of her.

She caught up with him on the street drunkenness or crimes committed after the concert and he raised his hat to her with ominous politeness and helped her check the evil have proved failures. In the Canal Canal

"Madam," he said to her, when they had entered the vestibule of the Jobson domi-cile, "when a man is infernal idiot enough to be willing to take a chance on being to be willing to take a chance on being stood up' by a woman, he ought at least to have enough address and gumption about him to see to it that the woman by whom he is 'stood up' son't his wife. You stood me up' to a in a pretty scientific manner. You claim 'say you attended that concert, but I've got my own ideas on that subject—the only evidence that you attended that subject—the only evidence that you attended that subject—the only evidence that you attended that you possess is a seat coupon, and they're pretty easy to get by people with axes to grind. That, however, has nothing whatever to do with the matter—whether you really attended the concert or not. What I desire to say to you is this: I may be 'stood up' again at some future time—life is a warfare and a queer game besides, and we've all got to take a chance occasionally—but the next time I'm 'stood up,' madam, it won't be you that'll 'stand me up,' and don't you fail to remember that!"

—Washington Star. up, and don to Star.

United Confederate Veterans' Reunion. New Orleans, La., May, 19, 20, 21, 22 Very low rate excursion tickets via Norfolk and Western Railway, on sale May 16-21 inclusive, itmited to May 24, but by depositing ticket with Joint Agent and payment of 50 cents fee extension can be had to June 15th, 1963. Through Pullman sleepers; dining cars; which expresses meals a la carte. Additional information but what he is. tion and rates cheerfully turnished. W. B. Bevill,

General Passenger Agent.

JOBSON AT A CONCERT

"I don't believe it." If his father said that the sun was a great ball of fire over 92,000,000 miles away, he would those from freight. reply: "I don't believe it;" and if his mother reminded him that in Aus-tralia the sun shines when we in Eng-land are fast asleep in our beds, he would shake his head, saying: "I don't believe it." And so it was that he got to be named "Don't believe it," and his want of belief caused much fun.

Now, there is no harm in seeking to find out the truth of what we are told; the child who reads to learn, and seeks to find out the truth, is acting rightly, and will get good by so doing.

Now, there are three reasons given for the drinking of intexpersion.

for the drinking of intoxicating Thermometers used by physicians drinks, about which I want you to be show a charge of a millionth of a de-very doubtful. 1. Don't believe that intoxicating cating drinks.

The chemist cannot find any food substances in intoxicating drinks such as he can in milk upon which the body

Intelligible Nan To Call, ON BUSI-ness, and professional meta. Permanent section and good pay. Manager, Box 78 mb. 20 84.

only one seat then, and huriedly entered the theater. She asked an usher to send word to the "gentleman sitting alone in one of the boxes" that a lady would like to see him for the gastric juice in the stomach, the Drunken Women in Ottawa. Intemperance among women and girl prisoners in Ottawa, the capital of Canada, has increased to the alarming extent of 75 per cent. of all fe males. In many cases women of about the age of 20 have been imprisoned for drunkenness or crimes committed view of the circumstances, the Can-adian government has been petit uned to establish cottage homes in Ottawa

A lazy liver makes a lazy man. Bur-dock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

Another has well said, "It is not what he has, or even what he does which expresses the worth of a man,

La Grippe Cough

German Syrup is the special presciption of Dr. A. Aoschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowleged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of vers, giving satisfaction in DON'T BELIEVE IT.

Some Claims for Alcohol Which in the Light of Fact and Experience You Must Deny.

Arthur Stansfield was a strange boy in some respects. When any information was given him that he could not easily understand, he would reply: "I don't believe it." If his father said

The receipts from passenger traffic are greater on Japan's railways than Stops the Cough and Works off the cold. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, No pay. Price, 25 cents.

lemon groves containing 16,739,907

Italy has 95,701 acres of orange and drinks will make you strong.

The strongest animals in the world do not need intoxicating drinks; the lion, the tiger and the elephant are all Ointment. At any drug store.

There are millions of people in the world who live long lives and do much hard work without the use of intoxi-those from freight.

the girl athlete can manage it she must try not to touch her neck with the handkerchief. She must hold her are must be hind her bead, but the handkerchief must not touch the neck. There is a certain shoulder exercise to be obtained in this manner which is very refreshing.

Another exercise is to take the handkerchief by one end and fling it around her head. In the loose end she must tie a weight, and thus, with the handkerchief in her hand, she sits an affirmative.

Have you got a box?" he inquired of the box office man, and the latter nodded pleasantly in the affirmative.

It was only a few momental later that Mrs. John, and he preduced his wallet and paid prove very useful in the search for aloping dumb-bells in the hands. Carrying dumb-bells in the bands has also been recommended. But this is tiresome. It does the work, but one becomes weary. The dumb-bells which are heavy are merely carried about, not swung, the object being to exerc.

Bowing is one way to make the shoulders.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and eximination with the aid of the N-Rays, established it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results of the body. The saliva in the mouth, "frow repeated attacks or indigestion, the gastric juice in the stomach, the Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands other digestive liquids are bile coming from the liver, and the other digestive liquids are nearly all water.

On these three points you may exercise your disbellef. Don't believe that

In spite of recent disturbances, the Fransyaal exported $35,232,915 of gold

Health

"For 25 years I have never missed taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla every spring. It cleanses my blood, makes me feel strong, and Pure and rich blood carries new life to every part of the body. You are invigorated, refreshed. You feel anxious to be active. You become strong, steady, courageous. That's what Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for you. $1.00 a bottle. Ask your dector what he thinks of this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

Ayer's Pills aid the Sarsaparille reatly. They keep the liver active greatly. They keep the and the bowels regular.

Good Pills

Ayer's Pills are good pills. You know that. The best family laxative you can buy.

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use